

ADMIN TEAM THROUGH COVID TIMES

The announcement of nation wide lockdown to curve the Covid-19 pandemic hit hard on every one in the nation. There was panic, fear and every one thought of saving oneself from this deadly pandemic through whichever means they could. BOSCO too followed the government orders and suggested that we should work from home till the lockdown ends.

This phenomenal idea of work from home was new and many of us thought how we would connect to the PoCs in this lockdown period. But Covid-19 lockdown did not deter us from connecting to the PoCs. By end of the first lockdown, there was news that there will be second lockdown too. Strategies and its implementation for providing services to our POCs was put in motion. The news of second lockdown brought lots of challenging situation especially less ration supply, landlord issues, financial problem and frustration of losing job. There were numerous calls for the ration support. Most of them complained that many of their community members would definitely die of hunger than Covid-19. This panic and helplessness of the PoCs pushed the office to make quick and wise decision to distribute the dry ration to all the refugees who have valid UN Card across all nationalities in Delhi.

The decision to purchase the dry ration was quick but the lockdown paralyzed the zeal within us. We were wondering how to make the rations reach in the community. The thought that even if we succeeded, the distribution would be equally tough due to deployment of the section 144 of CPC which does not allow to gather more than four people at a time. Soon the office applied for the two-wheeler Covid-19 passes and with much difficulties we received three passes for two-wheeler and van. Once the Covid-19 passes were in hand, office drafted letters to all the police station close to the distribution centers requesting for police cooperation during ration distribution.

Though it seems easy, but it is really tough to go out when every one is afraid of getting infected by the corona virus. But the need of the hour was far greater than one would think of. Thus, some of us risking oneself went out to distribute the same. And while distribution we followed all the protocol of the government like maintaining social distancing and wearing mask were made compulsory for all those who came to collect the ration.

Our target for first round was 2500 household and second round was 950 household but we managed to cover more than the target we planned for.

NIOS CLASSES IN COVID-19

Over the last few weeks, almost everything in our lives has changed because of Covid-19. From shopping, socialising, working, studying, celebrating functions and important occasions like Ramadan are affected due to Covid-19 lockdown. But there is one thing that has not changed is our commitment to refugee students.

In times of crisis, the NIOS teachers have delivered the most. As schools across the world have temporarily closed their doors due to the Covid-19 pandemic, educators are turning to remote learning as a way to keep their students engaged.

Our NIOS Teachers and students are staying connected through online video conferencing and other virtual learning mediums. Our mission has been to ensure that learning will never be interrupted, no matter what. By following the strict rules of the government, all BOSCO centres were closed down.

However NIOS classes and the learning continued virtually in spite of the nation wide lockdown. Virtual classes were held, though totally different from traditional classes, yet most of the students have actively participated and the learning has been in progress.

Ramin Humdard a NIOS teacher from Malviya Nagar centre is using virtual medium to conduct each of his lectures remotely and allows students to take notes and ask questions in real-time. He says, “I meet with students using virtual learning app like Zoom by taking online classes daily. Classes begin and end at the same time as per the fixed timetable followed before lockdown. Everyday I reach out to 60 students through online classes on Zoom app and 88 students through Whatsapp group.” After each lecture students work out the assigned problems on paper, take a picture, and upload it through Whatsapp. His day wraps up with grading the submitted assignments.

C.Vanlallawmi, NIOS teacher from Budella centre says that “Lockdown may stop students from going to school but education will never stop and will continue to reach students. Everyday I reach out to 116 students through online classes on Whatsapp group.” She has been taking regular online classes virtually on Zoom, Whatsapp. She is using these unfamiliar mechanisms to stay connected for learning, giving hope and positivity to the students that learning will never stop even during this pandemic.

Shalet, one of NIOS teachers says that “Keeping ourselves and the students engaged has become the priority since the lockdown, and virtual classes have proved to be helpful in these difficult times. Everyday I reach out to 63 students through online classes on Whatsapp group.” She has been taking Maths classes and co-ordinating with the students regularly of all the three BOSCO centres. According to her role of a teacher is greater than God. It is a teacher who teaches who God is ?

Thomas one of the NIOS teachers from Bhogal centre says that “Since the Covid-19 lockdown my day starts with a walk, then by following up with my students and by teaching them four hours per day using virtual learning app Zoom to those who have access to internet. Once or twice in a week I also help in ration distribution to our beneficiaries. Everyday I reach out to 15 students through online classes on Whatsapp group/Zoom App.”
